ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 9, 2018, Range Resources Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a voting support and nomination agreement (the “Agreement”) with SailingStone Capital Partners LLC and SailingStone Holdings LLC (collectively, the “SailingStone Parties”), which together own approximately 17% of the Company’s common stock.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company will appoint, as promptly as reasonably practicable, two new independent directors to the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) who are to be mutually agreed upon by the Company and the SailingStone Parties. The two new members are expected to stand for election at the Company’s 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (“2019 Annual Meeting”) and at the Company’s 2020 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The size of the Board will be limited to a maximum of nine directors after the 2019 Annual Meeting. The Company will also separate the roles of Chairman and CEO.

The Agreement contains various other terms and provisions, including customary standstill provisions and voting commitments entered into by the SailingStone Parties.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

In addition, on July 9, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing the adoption of certain initiatives by the Company’s Board relating to corporate governance. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

- 1) After the announced departures of two directors, one of which is effective September 30, 2018, and the addition of two new independent directors (as described above), the Board will be comprised of 10 directors, nine of whom are independent;
- 2) Effective immediately, the Board has appointed Greg G. Maxwell, an independent director, to the position of Chairman of the Board; and
- 3) The Company will initiate an external search for an Executive Vice President to supplement and strengthen the management team.

In connection with the chairmanship appointment, Mr. Maxwell was granted 7,030 shares of restricted stock which is immediately vested and he will receive an annual cash retainer of $255,000 for his service as Chairman of the Board.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.

RANGE RESOURCES CORPORATION

By: /s/ David P. Poole
David P. Poole,
Senior Vice President-
General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Date: July 9, 2018

Voting Support and Nomination Agreement

This Voting Support and Nomination Agreement (this “Agreement”), dated as of July 9, 2018, is entered into by and among SailingStone Capital Partners LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“SailingStone Capital”) and SailingStone Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (collectively, the “SailingStone Parties”, and each individually, a “SailingStone Party”) and Range Resources Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Company”).

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof to its knowledge, SailingStone Capital currently has discretionary investment authority and discretionary voting authority over approximately 41,621,584 shares of the Company’s common stock (“Common Stock”);

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) will: (i) identify one (1) incumbent director who will not be included in the Board’s slate for election at the 2019 Meeting (as defined below) and one (1) incumbent director who will not be included in the Board’s slate for election as a director at the 2020 Meeting (as defined below) and (ii) cooperate in good faith with the SailingStone Parties to identify two (2) new independent directors to be appointed to the Board, who, in each case, are mutually agreeable to the Board and the SailingStone Parties; and

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the SailingStone Parties agree to vote all shares of Common Stock with respect to which SailingStone Capital has discretionary investment authority and discretionary voting authority in accordance with the recommendations of the Board at the 2019 Meeting and the 2020 Meeting with respect to the election of directors.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises, representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the parties and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged by each of the parties, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1BOARD OF DIRECTORS*1.1 Joint Appointees.

(a) The Company (acting through the Board and the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board) shall identify one (1) incumbent director who shall not be included in the Board’s slate for election as a director at the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (the “2019 Meeting”) and one (1) incumbent director (each such incumbent director, a “Non-Returning Director”) who shall not be included in the Board’s slate for election as a director at the first annual meeting of stockholders of the Company following the 2019 Meeting (the “2020 Meeting”); provided, however, that in no event shall any of the Jointly Selected Directors (as defined below) be selected as a “Non-Returning Director”.

(b) Both the Company (acting through the Board and the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board) and the SailingStone Parties shall have the ability to recommend to the other party director candidates for appointment to the Board and shall consider in good faith any director candidates proposed by the other party for such directorships. Upon the recommendation of a director candidate by the Company or the SailingStone Parties, as applicable (a “Submitting Party”) to the other Party (the “Receiving Party”), the Receiving Party shall notify the Submitting Party as promptly as reasonably practicable whether or not such Receiving Party agrees to the recommendation of such Submitting Party. If such Receiving Party does not agree to the recommendation of such Submitting Party (it being understood that a Receiving Party may withhold its agreement in its sole discretion), each of the Company and the SailingStone Parties shall have the right to continue to recommend to the other Party additional director candidates, which the other Party shall consider in good faith and on an as promptly as reasonably practicable basis, and the Parties shall continue to follow the procedures of this Section 1.1(b) until the Company and the SailingStone Parties mutually agree on two (2) candidates to be appointed to the Board as independent directors (such candidates, collectively, the “Joint Appointees”, and each individually, a “Joint Appointee”, and together with any director appointed to the Board pursuant to that certain Voting Support and Nomination Agreement, dated as of August 7, 2016, by and among the SailingStone Parties and the Company, the “Jointly Selected Directors”). The Company shall take all necessary action to appoint each Joint Appointee to the Board as promptly as reasonably practicable after mutual agreement is reached by the Company and the SailingStone Parties with respect to such Joint Appointee and each such Joint Appointee shall be included in the Board’s slate for election as a director at the 2019 Meeting and the 2020 Meeting.

ARTICLE 2

COVENANTS

Covenants of the SailingStone Parties

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the date this Agreement terminates in accordance with Section 4.1, the SailingStone Parties agree that at any meeting of the Company stockholders, however called, including the 2019 Meeting and the 2020 Meeting (or any adjournment or postponement thereof), and in connection with any written consent solicitation, SailingStone Capital shall vote, or cause to be voted, all of the Common Stock for which SailingStone Capital has discretionary investment authority and discretionary voting authority as of the record date of such applicable meeting, vote or consent in accordance with the recommendations of the Board with respect to: (i) the election of Company directors, including the election of the Company’s nominees to the Board, including the Joint Appointees and (ii) any other proposals or nominations proposed or supported by any other stockholder of the Company that relate specifically to the matters in clause (i) above or otherwise relate to Board makeup or structure (it being understood that the SailingStone Parties and their affiliates (as such term is defined under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”)) shall be free to vote their shares of Common Stock in their sole discretion with respect to any proposals made by the Company other than those of the type referred to in clause (i) above and any stockholder proposals not specifically related to the matters in clauses (i) and

(ii) above; it also being understood that, in the case of clause (ii) above, the SailingStone Parties and their affiliates shall be permitted to vote in their sole discretion with respect to any proposals that relate to the implementation of takeover defenses or that adversely affect the rights of stockholders in a material respect). Notwithstanding the foregoing, consistent with Section 2.1(b)(i) below, in no event shall any SailingStone Party disclose publicly or to any other stockholder of the Company its intention to vote against the Company's non-binding proposal to approve its executive compensation philosophy; provided, for avoidance of doubt, the SailingStone Parties shall be free to discuss their intentions to vote on all matters with their respective clients in the ordinary course of business in a manner that would not reasonably be expected to lead to general public disclosure regarding any SailingStone Party's intention to vote against the Company's non-binding proposal to approve its executive compensation philosophy.

(b) Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the SailingStone Parties agree that, during the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the date this Agreement terminates in accordance with Section 4.1, unless specifically invited in writing by the Board, none of the SailingStone Parties or any of their affiliates (as such term is defined in the Exchange Act) will in any manner, directly or indirectly (including, without limitation, by directing or requesting that any other person take such action):

(i) effect or seek, offer or propose (whether publicly or otherwise and whether or not subject to conditions) to effect, or announce any intention to effect or cause or participate in or in any way knowingly assist, facilitate or encourage any other person to effect or seek, offer or propose (whether publicly or otherwise and whether or not subject to conditions) to effect, or announce any intention to effect or cause or participate in: (A) any "solicitation" of "proxies" to vote (as such terms are used in applicable corporate and securities laws, but including actions that would be a solicitation but for an exemption under such laws) or consents to vote (whether or not related to the election or removal of directors) (including, without limitation, any solicitations of consents with respect to the calling of a special meeting of stockholders) with respect to the Common Stock; (B) the initiation, proposal, encouragement or solicitation of stockholders of the Company for the approval of any stockholder proposals with respect to the Company (including pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act); or (C) the solicitation, advisement or knowing influence of any person with respect to the voting of any Common Stock;

(ii) deposit any Common Stock in a voting trust or subject Common Stock to a voting agreement or other agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting of Common Stock, including, without limitation, by lending any securities of the Company to any person or entity for the purpose of allowing such person or entity to vote such securities in connection with any stockholder vote of the Company;

(iii) publicly make or be the proponent of any recommendation, suggestion or other statement, offer or proposal of: (A) any take-over bid or tender offer for Common Stock; (B) any acquisition of a material portion of the assets or property of the Company; (C) any stock repurchase, dividend, self-tender or other change in capitalization, or any merger, amalgamation, acquisition, disposition, consolidation, recapitalization, restructuring, liquidation, dissolution, or other business combination or extraordinary transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries, businesses or divisions (each, an “Extraordinary Transaction”), provided that nothing in this paragraph (iii) shall be deemed to preclude or prohibit the SailingStone Parties or their affiliates from communicating their views with respect to such matters privately to the Board or from tendering into a tender or exchange offer or receiving any consideration on the same basis as any other stockholders of the Company in connection with an Extraordinary Transaction; or from voting for or against any such Extraordinary Transaction;

(iv) (A) requisition, call or seek to requisition or call any meeting of the Company’s stockholders; (B) except as provided herein, seek representation on the Board; (C) seek, or vote for or support another party seeking, the removal of, or vote for the removal of, any member of the Board; (D) except as provided herein, seek, or vote for or support another party seeking to elect or appoint one or more members of the Board; or (E) conduct a referendum of the Company’s stockholders;

(v) make any request under Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law or other applicable legal provisions regarding inspection of books and records or other materials (including stockholder list materials);

(vi) form, join or in any way participate in a “group” (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) in connection with any action contemplated in this Section 2.1;

(vii) acquire beneficial ownership of any shares of Common Stock if, after giving effect to such acquisition, the SailingStone Parties, together with their respective affiliates, would beneficially own more than 19.99% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock (for purposes of this Agreement, “beneficial ownership” and derivative terms shall have the meaning given in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act);

(viii) (1) take any action which could cause or require the Company or any affiliate (as defined in the Exchange Act) of the Company to make a public announcement regarding any of the circumstances described in paragraphs (i) through (vii) above, (2) seek or request permission to take any action described in paragraphs (i) through (vii) above (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the SailingStone Parties shall not be prohibited from requesting permission to take an action described in paragraph (vii) solely due to the fact that the action itself, if approved by the Company, may require the filing of an amendment to a Schedule 13D), (3) make any request to amend, waive or terminate any provision of this Section 2.1(b) (including, without limitation, this Section 2.1(b)(viii)), or, subject to paragraph (ix) below, seek permission to make any public announcement with respect to any of the circumstances described in paragraphs (i) through (vii) above, in each case, which would reasonably be expected to require (x) public disclosure thereof by the Company or (y) the filing of an amendment to any Schedule 13D or any other filing under the Exchange Act filed by the SailingStone Parties (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the SailingStone Parties may make such filings as are required by Sections 13 and 16 of the Exchange Act to the extent such filings are required solely in respect of the acquisition or disposition of Common Stock in compliance with this Agreement);

(ix) knowingly enter into any discussions, negotiations, arrangements or understandings with any third party with respect to the foregoing, or knowingly take any action or propose to take any action with respect to any of the foregoing, including through the provision of advice, assistance, influence, support, public statements or encouragement.

2.2 Covenants of the Company.

(a) During the term of this Agreement, the size of the Board shall not be greater than ten before the 2019 Meeting and shall not be greater than nine after the 2019 Meeting.

(b) The Company shall take all necessary steps to ensure that, at all times during the term of this Agreement, the Chairman of the Board will not be the same person as the chief executive officer of the Company.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Representations of the SailingStone Parties

. The SailingStone Parties represent and warrant as follows:

(a) The SailingStone Parties have the power and authority to execute, deliver and carry out the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the SailingStone Parties, constitutes a valid and binding obligation and agreement of the SailingStone Parties and is enforceable against the SailingStone Parties in accordance with its terms, subject to the qualification that enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other applicable laws relating to or affecting rights of creditors generally and subject to the qualification that equitable remedies, including specific performance, are discretionary.

(c) As of the date hereof to their knowledge, the SailingStone Parties and their affiliates have discretionary investment authority and discretionary voting authority over an aggregate of approximately 41,621,584 shares of Common Stock and such shares constitute all of the Common Stock over which the SailingStone Parties and their affiliates have discretionary investment authority and discretionary voting authority. The Company acknowledges and agrees that, pursuant to applicable law and the terms of any investment advisory or similar agreements with SailingStone Capital, investment advisory clients of SailingStone Capital may have the authority to revoke SailingStone Capital's authority to exercise voting discretion over the Common Stock, and that such investment advisory clients of SailingStone Capital are not (and shall not be) bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement with respect to the voting of such Common Stock. The Company further acknowledges and agrees that while SailingStone Capital will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain proxy voting materials from all investment advisory client custodians, SailingStone Capital will not be responsible for voting shares of Common Stock for which an investment advisory client's custodian fails to forward proxy materials to SailingStone Capital.

(d) The SailingStone Parties and their affiliates have not, and, to their knowledge, none of their investment advisory clients have formed, joined or in any way participated in a "group" (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) in connection with any action contemplated in Section 2.1(b).

Representations of the Company

. The Company represents and warrants as follows:

(a) The Company has the power and authority to execute, deliver and carry out the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company, constitutes a valid and binding obligation and agreement of the Company and is enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to the qualification that such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other applicable laws relating to or affecting rights of creditors generally and subject to the qualification that equitable remedies, including specific performance, are discretionary.

(c) Kevin S. McCarthy has irrevocably resigned from the Board effective as of June 13, 2018 and Robert A. Innamorati has irrevocably resigned from the Board, effective as of September 30, 2018, the Company has accepted such resignation and Mr. Innamorati will cease to be a director as of such date.

ARTICLE 4

TERMINATION

. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until the earliest of:

(a) thirty (30) calendar days prior to the last date on which individuals may be nominated for election as directors at the first annual meeting of the Company after the 2020 Meeting; provided that the SailingStone Parties may terminate this Agreement on the date that is thirty (30) calendar days prior to the last date on which individuals may be nominated for election as directors of the Board at the 2020 Meeting by notifying the Company in writing at least ten (10) calendar days in advance of such termination; and

(b) such other date established by mutual written agreement of each of the parties.

Effect of Termination

. Article 5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement. No termination pursuant to Section 4.1 shall relieve any party hereto from liability for any breach of this Agreement prior to such termination.

ARTICLE 5

No Third-Party Beneficiaries

. Nothing in this Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended to or shall confer any rights, benefits or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement on any persons other than the parties hereto, nor is anything in this Agreement intended to relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third persons to any party.

Communications

(a) On the date of this Agreement, the Company and the SailingStone Parties shall jointly issue a mutually agreeable press release (the "Press Release") announcing this Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. Prior to the issuance of the Press Release, neither the Company nor the SailingStone Parties shall issue any press release or public announcement regarding this Agreement or take any action that would require public disclosure thereof without the prior written consent of the other party. No party or any of its affiliates (as defined in the Exchange Act) shall make any public statement (including, without limitation, in any filing required under the Exchange Act) concerning the subject matter of this Agreement inconsistent with the Press Release. During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the date this Agreement terminates in accordance with Section 4.1, no party shall make any public announcement or statement with respect to the subject of this Agreement that is inconsistent with or contrary to the statements made in the Press Release, except as required by law or the rules and regulations under any stock exchange or governmental entity or except as with the prior written consent of the SailingStone Parties and the Company, as applicable. The Company, with respect to its Current Report on Form 8-K, and the SailingStone Parties, with respect to the amendment of SailingStone Capital's Schedule 13D, and each in connection with the entrance by the parties to this Agreement, will provide the other party, prior to each such filing, a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such documents, and each such party will consider any comments from the other party in good faith. The Company acknowledges that SailingStone Capital may file this Agreement as an exhibit to its Schedule 13D.

(b) During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the date this Agreement terminates in accordance with Section 4.1:

(i) the SailingStone Parties, their respective officers and directors and the SailingStone Parties' controlled affiliates shall refrain from making or causing to be made, by press release or similar public statement to the press or media, or in an SEC filing, any statement or announcement that constitutes an ad hominem attack on the officers or directors of the Company or any person who has served as an officer or director of the Company in the past; and

(ii) the Company, its affiliates and their respective officers and directors shall refrain from making or causing to be made, by press release or similar public statement to the press or media, or in an SEC filing, any statement or announcement that constitutes an ad hominem attack on the officers, directors, partners or investment professionals of the SailingStone Parties or any person who has served as an officer, director or investment professional of the SailingStone Parties in the past.

(c) Nothing in Section 5.3(a) or 5.3(b) shall prevent the making of any factual statement as required by applicable legal process, subpoena, or legal requirement or as part of a response to a request for information from any governmental authority with jurisdiction over the party from whom information is sought.

Fiduciary Duties

. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the SailingStone Parties shall not be required to take or omit to take any action hereunder to the extent such action (or omission of action) would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the SailingStone Parties' fiduciary duties or obligations under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940.

Governing Law

. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware. The parties: (a) irrevocably and unconditionally consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if any such court declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within the State of Delaware) and any appellate court therefrom for purposes of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement; (b) agree that service of any process, summons, notice or document by registered mail to the address set forth in Section 5.1 of this Agreement shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding brought against them; (c) irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in such courts; and (d) irrevocably and unconditionally waive the right to plead or claim, and irrevocably and unconditionally agree not to plead or claim, that any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement that is brought in such courts has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a party may seek injunctive or other equitable relief in any jurisdiction to prevent another party's breach of this Agreement.

Assignment

. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable only by the parties hereto. No party to this Agreement may assign its rights or delegate its obligations under this Agreement, whether by operation of law or otherwise.

Amendments; Waivers

. This Agreement may only be amended pursuant to a written agreement executed by all the parties, and no waiver of compliance with any provision or condition of this Agreement and no consent provided for in this Agreement shall be effective unless evidenced by a written instrument executed by the party against whom such waiver or consent is to be effective. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder.

Entire Agreement

. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of all the parties and except as provided herein supersedes any and all prior and contemporaneous agreements, memoranda, arrangements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. No representation, warranty, promise, inducement or statement of intention has been made by any party which is not contained in this Agreement and no party shall be bound by, or be liable for, any alleged representation, promise, inducement or statement of intention not contained herein. The parties expressly disclaim reliance on any information, statements, representations or warranties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement other than the terms of this Agreement.

Counterparts

. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (including by facsimile transmission or email transmission in a "portable document format (".pdf") form), each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one binding agreement on the parties, notwithstanding that not all parties are signatories to the same counterpart.

Expenses

. The SailingStone Parties may submit reasonably detailed documentation of their actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with all matters related hereto (including the negotiation of this Agreement) and the Company shall reimburse the SailingStone Parties for such expenses; provided, however, in no event shall the Company be obligated to reimburse such expenses in excess of $150,000 in the aggregate. Except as otherwise provided in the preceding sentence, all fees, costs and expenses incurred by each party shall be paid by the party incurring such fees, costs or expenses.

Captions

. The captions contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any provisions of this Agreement.

Construction

. Unless the express context otherwise requires: (a) wherever the word "include," "includes," or "including" is used in this Agreement, it shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation"; (b) references herein to any law, statute, regulation, or code mean such law, statute, regulation, or code as amended, modified, codified, reenacted, supplemented or superseded in whole or in part, and in effect from time to time prior to the execution of this Agreement; and (c) terms defined in the singular shall have a comparable meaning when used in the plural, and vice versa. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event of an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Specific Performance

. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that such damage would not be adequately compensable in damages. It is accordingly agreed that the parties are entitled to seek an injunction or specific performance of the terms hereof in addition to any other remedies at law or in equity, and a party will not take any action, directly or indirectly, in opposition to another party seeking relief on the grounds that any other remedy or relief is available at law or in equity, and the parties further agree to waive any requirement for the security or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy or relief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

NEWS RELEASERANGE RESOURCES CORPORATION TO ADD NEW INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS TO BOARD

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, July 9, 2018. RANGE RESOURCES CORPORATION (NYSE: RRC) and SailingStone Capital Partners, LLC, owner of approximately 17% of Range's shares outstanding, today jointly announced that they have entered into an agreement for Range to appoint two mutually agreed upon independent directors to its Board of Directors. Once identified and approved by the Board and SailingStone, the new directors will be appointed to the Board immediately and would be expected to stand for election at Range's 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. With these planned appointments, along with the recent departure of a director and the planned departure of a second director who has announced his retirement from the Board effective September 30, 2018, Range's Board will be comprised of 10 directors, nine of whom will be independent. Range and SailingStone have also agreed to reduce the Board size to nine members by the 2019 annual stockholder meeting as part of the Board renewal process. Additionally, the Company plans to initiate an external search for an Executive Vice President to supplement and strengthen the Company's management team. Finally, the Company has agreed to separate the Chairman and CEO roles and the Board has appointed Greg G. Maxwell, an independent Director, to the position of Chairman of the Board effective immediately.

Ken Settles, a Managing Partner at SailingStone, said, "Range Resources has built a large, contiguous acreage position in one of the lowest-cost parts of the Marcellus Shale. The company's advantaged geology, scale, low decline rate and operational expertise should support capital-efficient development for many years to come. Range's Marcellus Shale position is truly world-class in terms of the returns and free cash flow that it generates, and is increasingly differentiated within the industry in terms of its remaining drilling inventory. We believe that the strategic changes previously announced by the company, combined with the new initiatives outlined in this agreement, will serve shareholders well as Range shifts its focus back toward developing the Marcellus Shale, reducing leverage and employing the "Shale 2.0" business model. We thank the Range Board for their engagement on these issues, and look forward to working with the company to add two new directors to the Board."

Greg G. Maxwell, Range's newly appointed Chairman, said, "Range appreciates the constructive relationship the Company has with SailingStone, and is committed to ensuring that our Board has the experience needed to continue to oversee the execution of our strategy and the further development of our top tier assets. Our agreement with SailingStone reflects our mutual alignment on realizing the full value creation potential for all shareholders of the Company. We look forward to continuing to work with SailingStone to identify two new, highly-qualified independent directors whose skills and experience will be additive to those already represented on our Board."

Under the terms of the agreement being filed today with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, SailingStone has agreed to vote all of its shares in support of Range's slate of director nominees, which is expected to include the newly appointed directors, at the Company's 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.
